Here are some guidelines that should be deemed necessary by anyone looking to perpetuate our experiences of absolute pleasure. Under the circumstances, formal dress is to be optional.

The throwing of rice, toast, midgets, confetti, bog roll etc. is part of the fun. It is not meant to harm people, ruin someone's make-up or costume, or cause damage to the theatre.

Never make fun of someone for "dressing up" - especially if their costume or make-up is not exact. When you think about it, any resentment is hypocritical to your own "dressing up".

Calling Brad an "asshole" and "neck lines" to the criminologist are funny in their proper place, but should not be yelled every time you see these characters' faces.
